KEEPING THE BROTHERHOOD INFORMED OF WHERE WE'VE BEEN AND WHERE WE'RE GOING

Sometimes we make this walk with our God so complicated when it can sometimes boil down to such simple concepts

Christianity 101

Being a Christian isn't a happening that occurs one day. It does begin on one day but it is a lifetime journey that continues on until the day our body breathes it's last breath. This lifetime undertaking can be summed up with a few short scriptures from the book of Proverbs. Proverbs 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

Proverbs 3:6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy

In every step I take I should do my best to find a way to acknowledge Him. And in acknowledging Him in my daily walk, over time, my path is straightened and the staggering zig zag ways of this flesh are ironed out by an increasing knowledge of a way that is higher than my own. This process is what renews us in the spirit of our mind and create within ourselves a new man that is honed in righteousness & holiness. These, seemingly, small things begin & continue that process. Stop lying. Don't steal. Don't let rotten, useless words come out of your mouth. That's a pretty short list. But those are the kind of things we read and keep in our minds. Those are the kind of things that we recognize coming out of our mouths and our actions and then catch ourselves and think... In this moment I will acknowledge Him. In this moment I'm going to act or react the way He would want me to. In that moment your path begins to straighten a little more and, from the inside out, you become a little more like your Heavenly Father. Simple isn't it? I have been saved by His grace for 38 years now and the process continues. Each day I seek to acknowledge Him in the things I do. In the way I interact with others and in the decisions that I make each day. Doing that is what, daily, makes my path straighter & points me in a direction I could not have seen with my own eyes.

What a perfect & consistent example He is.

Once again... We offer sincere apologies that the newsletter is letting getting out for the month of February. We have suffered another computer crash and had to order parts to repair the problem. It is our hope that this was not an inconvenience.
